

Ground Systems Development & Operations

ACTIVITY PAGE

GROUND SYSTEMS... MOVE THAT CRAWLER!

Engineers at NASA created a crawlerway to safely take rockets from the Vehicle Assembly Building, or VAB, to the launch pad. The crawlerway is made up of four different rock layers, making it 7 feet, 10 inches thick. The crawler is so heavy it would break a normal road!

Visit go.nasa.gov/groundsystems, for more information.